

Did'ja Know?

Egypt exists now as it did back in Joseph's time. Today, it's a big country where the pyramids still stand.

Creative
Corner

Look! Here's Joseph wearing his coat. But there's no color! Put on your artist's hat and spruce up this picture.

September 27, 2020

God Works Through
Joseph

Genesis 37:3-8, 17b-22, 26-34; 50:15-21

Jacob had twelve sons, but Joseph was his favorite. Jacob treated Joseph better than all his brothers. It made the brothers hate Joseph.

His brothers sold Joseph as a slave, and told their dad that Joseph had been killed by a wild animal. Oh no!

Joseph lived as a slave in Egypt for a long time, but God was with him, and soon, he was the second most powerful person in all of the land.

Then Joseph's brothers came to Egypt to ask for help.

Joseph thought, "I could get even with them for what they did to me." But he didn't.

"I forgive you," Joseph said. "What you did was terrible, but God made it turn out for the best."

Joseph's brothers hugged him and cried. "We're so sorry, Joseph! Thank you for loving us anyway!"

Coat of Many Colors

Jacob gave this gift to Joseph. It was so pretty but made Joseph's brothers jealous.

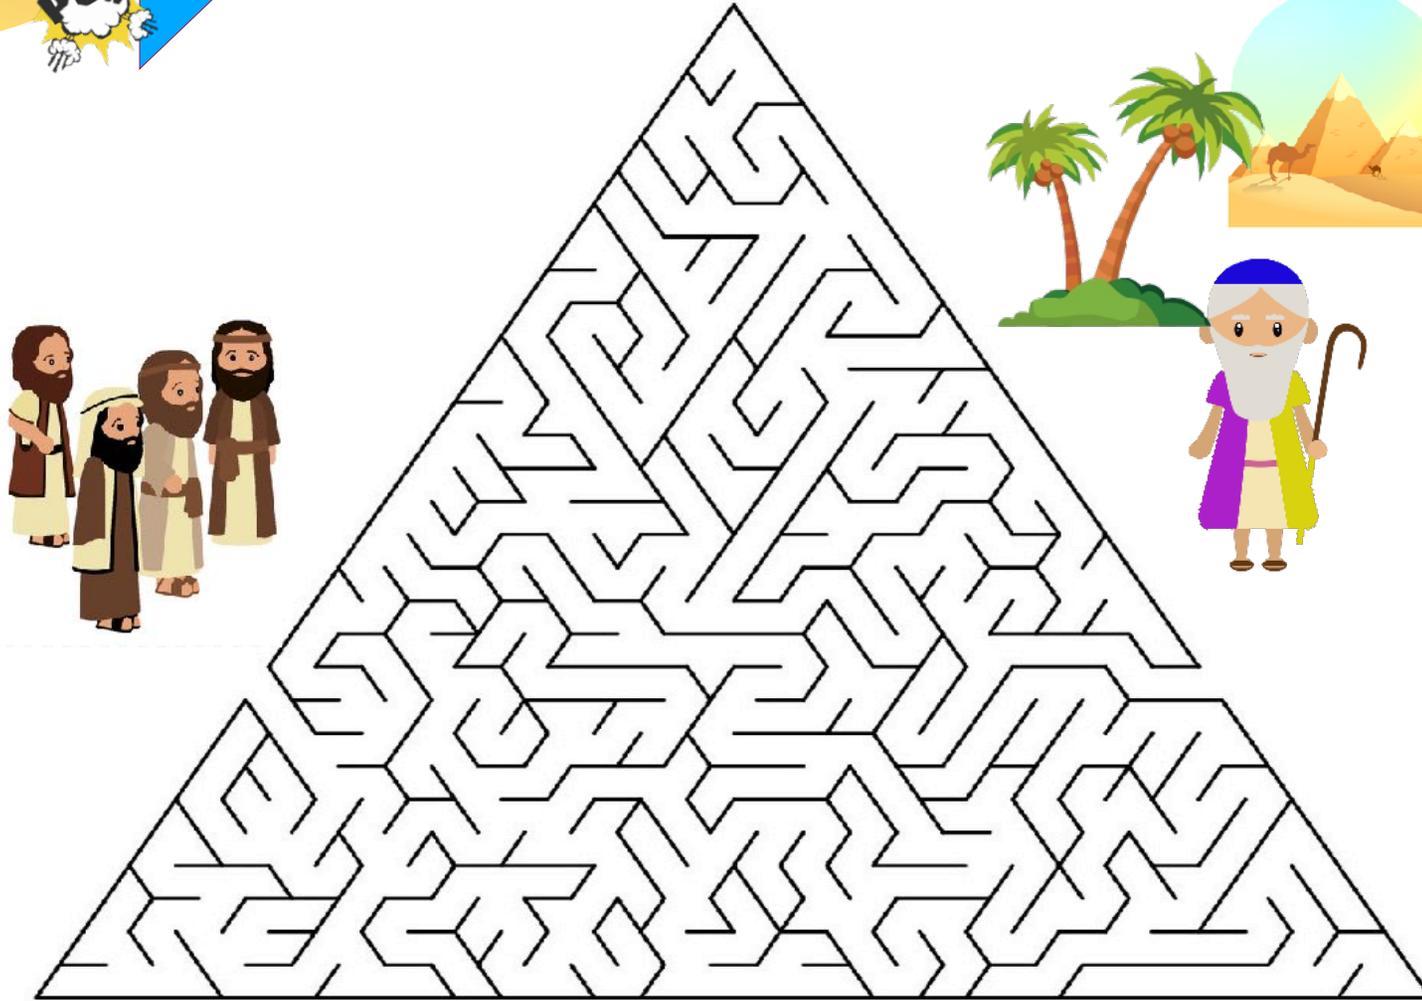

September 27, 2020

Fun Stuff

Maze Time!

Help Joseph's brothers reach him on the other side in Egypt.

TICTACTOE

Nice Quote!

It's one of the greatest gifts you can give yourself, to forgive. Forgive everybody.

- Maya Angelou, Author

Try it At Home

Search online for videos showing the musical "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat." It tells the whole story in the form of a musical on stage. There are many free places you can watch it online!

MORE

Fun Stuff